Books and Reading

- Happy is the man who acquires the habit of reading.
- As long as he has his beloved books he never feels lonely.
- He is the possessor of the wealth more precious than gold. Poor indeed is the man who does not read and empty is his life.
- There are many noble books on history, biography, philosophy, religion, travel and science which we ought to read and which will give us not only pleasure but an education.
- Books are the most faithful of friends. Our friends may change or leave us forever but our books are always patiently waiting to talk to us.
